

Session Scripture

*But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part,
which will not be taken away from her.*

Luke 10:42 NKJ

Key Points

- I will pursue making an investment in what I leave behind with the same sense of urgency and passion that I pursue the calling of greatness on my life.
- What I leave behind will speak more fully than all I could say on my own behalf.
- I would rather pass on the heritage of my life by making a lasting impression for good on one person's life than impress a good number of people in passing.
- Money doesn't buy happiness, but it does pay for the comforts of a happy life!
- A life lived in want is indebted to creditors, but a balanced life is incredibly free.
- The more I come to know of life's worth, the more I love the only One worthy.
- Just as a potential masterpiece is ruined by competing shapes and colors, so can the canvas of life be ruined by the assault of covetous competition.
- I will not sell my dreams cheaply as they have been given to me at great cost.
- Since my life is like a garden and God is its designer and husbandman, surely He has intended multiple rivers of income to flow profitably through my fields.
- To want to give the best to those we love is to give the best of ourselves to God. "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." Matthew 6:33 NKJ

Questions

1. Who has made a lasting impression on my life like the rich fragrance of an exotic perfume, cannot be dismissed by the absence of their body? When I examine my heart, some of the effects of this impact are...?

---

---

---

2. What do I want out of life? What does it "look" like and what is the significance of my passion?

---

---

---

3. What lies at the root of much of the fretting and inner turmoil of our consumer-ruled society? What can I do to live peacefully in the middle of a chaotic society?

---

---

---

4. What are some of the sacrifices I can make today that will position me to be able to give out of far greater resources in the future?

---

---

---

5. Is there really such a thing as "a little friendly competition"?

---

---

---

6. If there is more to life than "success", what is it?

---

---

---

Journal

I was thinking...

---

---

---

I was reminded of God's word that says...

---

---

---

It is my prayer that...

---

---

---